PLAN BI-WEEKLY DRILLS.

At the regular business meeting of the District Mounted Constabulary last night at the Washington Riding and Hunt Club, it was decided that during July drills will be held by the members of the organization bi-week-ly. No decision as to the kind of uni-term which will be worn by members of the command was decided upon.

It was the second series of arrests since the trouble started over the display of banners that Miss Morey, Miss Vernon, Miss Lucy Burns and Miss Virginia Arnold had undergone.

Militants Lose Banners.

Four of the banners were dropped by the suffragist group and, according to those who witnessed the demonstration, they were originally in the hands of pickets who got "cold feet" and mingled with the crowds. The suffragist explanation is that they were wrenched from their hands by spectators who surrounded the pickets.

Tomorrow the cases will be heard in the Police Court but in the meantime the suffragists state that their program will not be interrupted, though no official statement was forthcoming as to how they will attempt to picket the White House today.

Two earlier attempts at picketing were permitted by the police and the belief was that the "suffs" would confine themselves to this activity. They appeared from headquarters, the last time shortly before former President Taft left the White House, and marched up and down Pennsylvania avenue with furled banners.

The latest difficulty with the police is generally expected to hasten action on the bill introduced yesterday by Representative Howard, of Georgia, designed to prevent picketing of the White House and government buildings.

Miss Vernon and Miss Griener, who were arrested Saturday for displaying a banner at the Capitol were released for a further hearing.

Heart of Dead Man Found On Floor Beside His Bed

Boston, June 25.—The body of an unidentified man, about 22 years old, whose heart has been cut out, was found in a room in the West End today. The victim had been stabbed several times in the throat. His heart had been cut out from his breast and was on the floor beside the bed where the body was found. Four young men, apparently foreigners, had occupied the room since June 14.

The machine in which she made the long flight was a Curtiss military tractor, more than 100 of which are now in use on military scout duty in Northern France. It was loaned Miss Stinson by the Curtiss company for this flight, and this was the first time she had driven a machine of this type. It is a giant machine with planes forty-five feet in width. It had seats for two passengers, but Miss Stinson used the second seat as a baggage compartment for her lugsa baggage compartment for her lug-gage and her Red Cross literature. "I wish that I might take a ride with you myself." Secretary McAdoo told the little aviatrix laughingly. "So do we all," chorused the crowd who pressed about the group.

Between each interval of applause pleased acknowledgment. She still wore her aviation suit, including the leather headgear. On the lapel of her coat was pinned a large Red Cross button.

WAR PICTURES SHOWN AT UNIVERSITY CLUB

Liquid fire as it is squirted from the nozzle of a pipe, the Deutschland as the nosed her way into a German port, the Red Cross at work on German port, the Red Cross at work on German soil, Franz Joseph and the former Czar of Russia, smoke bombs for shielding air flights, trench flighting—these were a few of the things pictured in the war movies shown at the University Club last night.

The films were taken on German soil and passed into Switzerland just a few days before the declaration of war on America by Germany.

At the suggestion of the War Department, the titles of the different scenes were deleted. This, however, did not make the pictures less clear to the audience, for the scenes explained themselves.

The room in which the show was given was filled to capacity.

Fresident Wilson will visit the rotunda of the New National Museum Thursday afternoon and witness the presentation of the Robert Emmett statue. Judge Victor J. Dowling, of New York, will act as chairman and the honorary chairman will be former Senator O'Gorman.

The statue is being presented to the Museum by citizens of this country who are of Irish descent. It was recently finished by Jerome Conner, sculptor.

Judge Dowling will deliver the presentation address, after the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington, has delivered the opening prayer. A few songs will be sung by John McCormack, the noted tenor.
